

Eero Saarinen - Oval Marble Dining Table

1955 for Knoll International - black Edition

details

Eero Saarinen, oval marble dining table in black 1955 for Knoll International Eero Saarinen created the tulip table - the first one-legged table in the history of furniture design - in the 1950s with the intention of doing something against what he considered the "ugly and troubled world" that existed in the forest of chair and table legs to be found with American dining tables. Instead of the usual four legs, he used for the Oval Tulip dining table and other tables in the pedestal Collection, a single pillar, which should ensure formal peace and a clean design. The result is the elegant Saarinen...
